Ultraflex...Bigger & Better

Randolph, New Jersey – Ultraflex Systems, Inc, the leader in wide format digital media, has moved to a new location to enable them to more efficiently serve their customers. From the brand new, larger facility they will be able to ensure same-day shipping & increased product availability because of additional bay doors & space for inventory. The desire to enhance service for their customers lead the way for the expansion.

Through technological enhancements, Ultraflex plans to unveil new product releases throughout the year. These materials will continue to maintain their high level of quality, while at the same time providing cost effective solutions for their customers. Ultraflex remains committed to supplying the digital printing market with the highest quality products at very competitive prices.

For more information on new products, contact the Ultraflex Sales Department at (800) 368-7858.
